The Board of Commissioners for the County of Person, North Carolina, met in special called session on Tuesday, August 23, 2022 at 10:00am near the Picnic Shelter at Huck Sansbury Park located at 303 S. Morgan Street, Roxboro. The purpose of this Special Called Meeting was to discuss and view potential sites in Person County for the proposed design and built replicas of the Charters of Freedom Settings displaying the following founding documents: the Declaration of Independence, the United States Constitution and the Bill of Rights.

Chairman Powell called the meeting to order at 10:00am. Vice Chairman Sims arrived at 10:04am.

Chairman Powell announced the Board would discuss and view potential sites for the proposed design and built replicas of the Charters of Freedom Settings displaying the following founding documents: the Declaration of Independence, the United States Constitution and the Bill of Rights. He added the consideration for the selected site to be easily accessible in a high-traffic area.

The sites the Board discussed and visited were the Huck Sansbury Park, the Veterans Park, the Person County Courthouse and the Person County Museum of History campus.

The Board consented its first site preference was the Huck Sansbury Park directly across the road from the Veterans' Park site noting the close proximity to the Veterans' Park would enhance the traffic to visit the displays. Chairman Powell stated the wooden bulletin board was planned to be removed and that area provided a good focal point for this project display. Commissioners felt the Huck Sansbury Park has good foot traffic and has sufficient nearby parking for visitors.
